San Diego Building Owners and Managers Association

Membership Scholarship Program

Statement of Purpose

The scholarship program recognizes a deserving person's desire to participate in BOMA San Diego. Recognizing that some companies no longer pay for employee participation in BOMA San Diego, this scholarship program, funded by the proceeds from the annual EXPO/Trade Show, was established to fund membership scholarships for Principal members who would not otherwise be able to participate. The BOMA San Diego Membership Committee's goal is to award between ten and fifteen Principal memberships for 2017. All BOMA functions attended by the scholarship recipients must be paid for by other sources, the scholarship will only fund the BOMA San Diego membership fee. Scholarships will be awarded annually based on funding available from the annual EXPO/Trade Show fund.

Application Requirements

- (A) The candidate must complete the official scholarship application.
- (B) The Membership Committee shall not consider any candidate not meeting all of the eligibility and submission requirements.
- (C) The Membership Committee shall inform all candidates in writing of the outcome of the scholarship selection process.
- (D) Unsuccessful candidates for the scholarship may be considered the following year or any year thereafter upon submission of a current application.

Evaluation Criteria

The following criteria shall be used by the Membership Committee to select the scholarship recipient

- (A) Commitment and desire towards a career in the commercial real estate industry.
- (B) Completeness of application.
